ORANGE GROVES
Orlando, Fla.

Livery Stable

South Florida Railroad

Ma. W. G. Warren presents his compliments and requests all who are indebted to him to call at his place of business, corner of Church Street and Orange Avenue, on Friday, August 1st, at any time during the day, and settle their accounts. This will enable him to continue to sell goods of every description at lower prices for cash than any one else in Orlando; and save him the trouble and you the annoyance of running you for a settlement.
